

Tiered and Narrow Networks, the New Frontier in Health Insurance:
Implications for New Jersey's Regulatory Framework
October 18, 2016

Speaker Bios

Joel C. Cantor

Distinguished Professor and Director, Rutgers Center for State Health Policy

Joel C. Cantor is a Distinguished Professor of Public Policy and the founding Director of the Center for State Health Policy at Rutgers University in New Brunswick, New Jersey. Established 1999, the Center is a leader in health policy research and development nationally, with a special focus on informing policy in New Jersey. Dr. Cantor is published widely in the health services and policy literature on innovations in health service delivery and the regulation of private health insurance markets. He serves frequently as an advisor on health policy matters to New Jersey state government, and was the 2006 recipient of the Rutgers University President's Award for Research in Service to New Jersey. Prior to joining Rutgers in 1999, Dr. Cantor served as director of research at the United Hospital Fund of New York and director of evaluation research at the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. He received his doctorate in health policy and management from the Johns Hopkins University, School of Public Health in 1988, and was elected a Fellow of AcademyHealth in 1996.

The Honorable Jack Ciattarelli

Financial Institutions and Insurance Committee, New Jersey General Assembly

Assemblyman Ciattarelli (R) announced his candidacy for Governor of New Jersey in September 2016. He has served in the New Jersey State Legislature since 2011, when he was selected to complete the unexpired term of late Assemblyman Peter J. Biondi. In the same year, Assemblyman Ciattarelli won his own legislative race and was sworn into office in January of 2012. Previously, Assemblyman Ciattarelli served on the Somerset County Board of Freeholders from 2007-11, and as its Director in 2010. He was a member of the Borough of Raritan Council from 1990-95, serving as its President in 1991 and 1995. Assemblyman Ciattarelli earned his Bachelors of Science degree in Accounting and Masters of Business Administration (Finance) at Seton Hall University, where he has also taught as adjunct professor. He is also a Certified Public Accountant (inactive). He is also a successful entrepreneur and small business owner twice over, having founded two publishing companies, the second of which he continues to serve as CEO and Publisher for a Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine journal. A life-long resident of the region, he was born in Somerville and raised in the Borough of Raritan where his grandparents immigrated in the early 1900s. Assemblyman Ciattarelli and his wife, Melinda, have resided in Hillsborough since 1998, enrolling all four of their children in the public school system. Assemblyman Ciattarelli is active in his community, having coached his four children in various recreational activities.

Kevin Conlin

Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, Horizon BCBSNJ

Kevin P. Conlin is Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Horizon Blue Cross Blue Shield of New Jersey. He is responsible for directing and managing all business activities of Horizon BCBSNJ, ensuring the implementation of company-wide strategy and driving operational excellence throughout the organization. Prior to his current role, Mr. Conlin oversaw provider relationships across Horizon BCBSNJ's networks and was responsible for the Government Programs division, which provides dedicated focus and accountability for Horizon's government business markets (Medicaid, Medicare and Medigap). Mr. Conlin has 25 years of executive management experience in health care, with a concentration in hospital systems, provider management, and managed care business. Mr. Conlin has an extensive and diverse background in the hospital industry where he has held several executive management positions. Prior to joining Horizon BCBSNJ in 2012, Mr. Conlin served as Executive Vice President at Coventry Healthcare where he headed the company's medical management, national contracting, and provider relations departments. He was instrumental in leading innovative partnerships with health systems and physician groups. Mr. Conlin also served as President & CEO of Via Christi Health, a Kansas-based integrated health system with eight hospitals, a health insurance company, senior care facilities, physician practices, and home-based and outpatient services. Before joining Via Christi Health, he was President of Cross Country Consulting. Prior to that engagement, Mr. Conlin was President & CEO of Partners First, a subsidiary of Ascension Health. Mr. Conlin holds a Bachelor's degree in Biological Sciences from Rutgers University and a Master's degree in Health Administration from Duke University.

Katherine Hempstead

Senior Advisor, Robert Wood Johnson Foundation

Since late 2013, Katherine Hempstead, PhD has directed the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's work on health insurance coverage. In addition, Hempstead works on issues related to health care price transparency and value. She joined the Foundation in 2011 as a senior program officer in the Research-Evaluation-Learning unit. Previously, Hempstead was director of the Center for Health Statistics in the New Jersey Department of Health and Senior Services. She also served as statistician/analyst in the Office of the Attorney General, New Jersey Department of Law and Public Safety, and as an assistant research professor at the Rutgers Center for State Health Policy, where she currently holds a visiting faculty position. Hempstead also held positions at New York University's Wagner School of Public Service, and at Catholic University, in Washington D.C. She completed a postdoctoral fellowship at the Office of Population Research at Princeton University. Born in New Jersey, Hempstead received a PhD in Demography and History from the University of Pennsylvania, where she also earned a BA in Economics and History.

Ken Kobylowski

Senior Vice President of Provider Contracting and Network Operations, AmeriHealth

Ken Kobylowski oversees AmeriHealth New Jersey's Provider Relations, Provider Partnerships, and Provider Contracting and Reimbursement areas. Kobylowski ensures that AmeriHealth New Jersey's provider networks support the various product lines of business, including consumer-directed products, ACO partnerships, tiered networks, pay-for-performance, and shared-savings models. Kobylowski possesses an in-depth understanding of the New Jersey health care system. Prior to joining AmeriHealth New Jersey, he served as Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance, playing a critical leadership role during the historic implementation of the Affordable Care Act. As Commissioner, he also oversaw New Jersey's banking, insurance and real estate industries and held several leadership roles with the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC). Before serving as Commissioner, Kobylowski was with Herrick, Feinstein, LLP, a New York-based law firm, for more than a decade. He holds a JD, cum laude, from New York Law School and a BS, magna cum laude, in finance from Seton Hall University.

Margaret Koller

Executive Director, Rutgers Center for State Health Policy

Margaret Koller is the Executive Director at Rutgers Center for State Health Policy, serving as the Center's Chief Operating Officer overseeing all project development, financial, and strategic planning activities. Ms. Koller is also the co-principal investigator for the Center's infrastructure grant from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and most recently directed the Center's $14 million Affordable Care Act (ACA) project portfolio funded by the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Innovation (CMMI), which included the State Innovation Model (SIM) Design grant to advance New Jersey's delivery system transformation priorities.

Her expertise is in the areas of health care coverage and access, and insurance regulations and she routinely represents the Center to policy and stakeholder audiences around the state. In 2004, Ms. Koller received a gubernatorial appointment to the New Jersey Small Employer Health Benefits Program Board of Directors where she currently serves as the Board's Vice Chairperson. Before joining the Center in February 2001, Ms. Koller worked for Prudential HealthCare, and later Aetna, in a series of management roles. Prior to her experience in managed care, she served as a Congressional Aide in the New Jersey district office of Congressman Bernard Dwyer. Ms. Koller was a fellow at the Eagleton Institute of Politics at Rutgers University where she earned an MS in Public Policy.

Michael Maron

CEO and President, Holy Name Medical Center

Michael A. Maron, age 57 joined Holy Name Medical Center in 1987 as its Vice President and Chief Financial Officer and was promoted to Senior Vice President in 1991. In January 1997 he was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Maron received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration (concentrating in accounting) and a Bachelor of Science degree in Health Services Administration from Providence College, Providence, Rhode Island. He received his MBA from Columbia University Business School in New York. Mr. Maron is a member of the American College of Health Care Executives, Board of Directors of New Jersey Hospital Association, and chairman of New Jersey Hospital Association's HealthPAC Board of Directors, on the board of Commerce and Industry Association of New Jersey and the Chairman of its Healthcare Steering Committee. Mr. Maron was appointed to the CRUDEM Foundation Board of Directors, which under his guidance, oversees and funds the day-to-day operations of Hôpital Sacré Coeur, the largest hospital in Northern Haiti. Mr. Maron is the former chairman of the Bergen Catholic Alumni Association and Board of Directors for Bergen Catholic High School. He had also served on the Board of Directors for Horizon Healthcare Innovations – Horizon Blue Cross of New Jersey. In addition, Mr. Maron served on the board of the Northern New Jersey Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The Honorable Elizabeth Maher Muoio

Budget, Judiciary, & Commerce and Economic Development Committees, New Jersey General Assembly

In January 2015, Assemblywoman Muoio (D) was appointed to the chamber to replace Bonnie Watson Coleman (D) who was elected to New Jersey's 12th Congressional District. In November of that year, Assemblywoman Maher Muoio won election to the NJ General Assembly, representing the 15th district, where she currently serves on the Budget Committee, the Commerce and Economic Development Committee, and the Judiciary Committee. In December 2015, she introduced legislation regarding the operation and oversight of tiered networks within New Jersey. Prior to joining the legislature, Assemblywoman Maher Muoio was a member of the Mercer County Board of Chosen Freeholders (2001-2008) and the Pennington Borough Council (1997-2002). She holds a Juris Doctorate from Georgetown University and a Bachelor of Arts in History from Wesleyan University.

Patrick Young

President, Population Health, Hackensack Meridian Health

Patrick R. Young is president of Population Health for Hackensack Meridian Health. The mission of Hackensack Meridian Health is to provide the full spectrum of life-enhancing care and services to create and sustain healthy, vibrant communities. As president, Patrick leads the division of Population Health and is responsible for accelerating the development of strategic priorities related to health care reform; population health management; Meridian's Accountable Care Organization; Hackensack Meridian Health Partners, Meridian's clinically integrated network; health insurance partnerships; as well as overseeing Managed Care contracting. Prior to Hackensack Meridian Health, Patrick served as chairman and chief executive officer for Noble Health Alliance where he was responsible for day-to-day executive, strategic, and operational leadership. While at Noble, he led the Alliance's physician network, created clinical and claims data analysis capabilities, and developed innovative relationships with regional health care providers, insurers, and employers to help improve the quality and efficiency of health care. Patrick began his career in health care in the 1980s with US Healthcare, which was later acquired by Aetna. He rose through a series of increasingly responsible positions within Aetna, including president of business segments in the mid-Atlantic and Northeastern regions of the United States. In 2006 Patrick was named president of Aetna's Pennsylvania, Delaware, and West Virginia markets. Patrick holds a degree in Public Management from the University of Maine, and he is a member of the Pennsylvania Association of Health Underwriters. He serves on an advisory board for PatientPing, a health care technology company. Formerly, Patrick served on the board of the Princeton Academy of the Sacred Heart. He is founder and former president of New Hope/Solebury Pop Warner Football. He has also served on the board of the Lower Bucks County Red Cross and the American Diabetes Association of Central/Southeastern Pennsylvania and Southern New Jersey.